Welcome to the University of Colorado Denver (CU Denver)!

If you are a degree-seeking student attending the CU Denver, downtown campus for the first time, you are entitled to use this voucher to receive your first student identification card free of charge. The initial cost of a student identification card is covered in your New Student fee.

To obtain your student identification card, please complete the top portion of this voucher and present it to a staff member at the ID Station in the Tivoli Station (Bookstore) along with your class schedule and picture identification.

If you purchased a student identification card and were eligible to use this voucher, you are entitled to a $20.00 refund. Please take your paid receipt to the Bursar's Office located in the Student Commons (Academic Building 1) Room 5123 with your student identification card and this voucher to request a refund prior to the end of your first semester as a degree seeking student. The refund will not be issued immediately. A credit of $22.00 will be applied to your student account. There are not cash refunds.
